This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

+ Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.

+ Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.

+ Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.

+ Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference, or student's certificate secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card Holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetention. No exemption is granted. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked.

Dogs and Smoking are not allowed in the building.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

TO BE GIVEN IN THE

LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Established in 1839.)

PROGRAMME FOR 1905–1906.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-seventh — season, four distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is Free (but only under certain conditions), as follows: —

I. Public Lectures, — in Huntington Hall, 491 Boylston Street.
II. School for Industrial Foremen, — under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.
III. Teachers' School of Science, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.
IV. Courses for Workingmen, — under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

W. T. SEDGWICK, Curator.

Lectures in the Ninth Course, illustrated by experiments, by Charles R. Cross, Professor of Physics in the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, on Recent Developments in Electricity, will be given on March 3, 6, 10.

Owing to the fact that Dr. Hildebrand finds himself unable to come to America at present the Tenth Course has been withdrawn.

The Eleventh and last Course of the season will be eight lectures by James Jackson Putnam, M.D., Professor of Neurology in Harvard University, on Certain Prevalent Nervous Derangements and the Outlook for Their Prevention. I. The Nervous Health of the Community, and the Influences tending to Maintain and to Impair it. II, III. Influences tending to Impair the Nervous Health of the Individual, — especially, Emotion and Fatigue. IV. The Sub-Conscious Life, in its Medical Aspects. V. Correlations between the Mental and the Physical: Function and Structure. VI. The Power of Adaptation, considered in its Medical Relations. VII. Survey of our Means of Preserving Nervous Health; Mental Influences. VIII. Ideas and Ideals.

Mondays and Thursdays at 8 P. M., beginning Monday, March 12.

Directions for securing tickets may be found in the October Bulletin.

CERTAIN PREVALENT NERVOUS DERANGEMENTS AND THE OUTLOOK FOR THEIR PREVENTION.

A short list of references suggested in connection with the lectures before the Lowell Institute by James Jackson Putnam, M.D., Professor of Neurology in Harvard University.

All titles in the lists illustrative of the Lowell Lectures are furnished in each case by the lecturer himself, who alone is responsible for their extent and character.

LECTURE I.

For literature in favor of the view that the race is degenerating or is in danger of degenerating, see McKim: Heredity and Human Progress [*9360.04a2]; The Man of Genius [3608.119], by Lombroso; Degeneration [3585.124], by Nordau: and The Blot upon the Brain [3600a.5] by W. W. Ireland.

Hirsch, in his Genius and Degeneration [3585.130] takes the position that genius is not a disease, and the same view is taken by Wells in his Mankind in the Making [9304.042a5], a very suggestive and readable book, though not in all respects of authoritative scientific value. Havelock Ellis, in his Study of British Genius (Popular Science Monthly for April and September, 1901), finds a slight relationship between genius and insanity. Archdall Reid in The Principles of Heredity [5824.75], presents with force and thoroughness the argument for the view that acquired characters are not transmitted through inheritance, and believes that, on the whole, the race is well taken care of by evolutionary influences. A small book entitled Sanity of Mind [7808.46], by Dr. D. F. Lincoln, presents many aspects of these subjects in an excellent manner and is thoroughly reliable. Dr. F. A. Woods published a series of papers in the Popular Science Monthly (Vol. 61, 1902), entitled Mental and Moral Heredity in Royalty, which give the results of a very important research, and should be consulted in connection with Ireland's Blot upon the Brain.

LECTURES II AND III.

For a clinical description of the disorders to be described in these lectures, the translation of Dubois's book on the Psychic Treatment of Nervous Disorders may be consulted and also various text-books on neurology and psychiatry, such as C. L. Dana's Text-book of Nervous Diseases [3806.108] and Church & Peterson's Nervous and Mental Diseases [7802.83]. More detailed descriptions are given in Pierre Janet's Mental State of Hystericals [3802.139]. Consult also The Psychology of Suggestion [3608.174] and Multiple Personality [3608.220] by Sidis: Dissociation of a Personality, by Morton Prince, and Neurasthenia, by Edward Cowles, in the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, July, 1891 [*5746.1.125]; Traumatic Neuroses, by James J. Putnam, in the International Text-book of Surgery, Vol. 2 [*3753.86.2]: Traumatic Neuroses, by Morton Prince, and Neurasthenia by James J. Putnam, in the American System of Practical Medicine, Vol. 4 [*3731.65.4]. See also La pathologie des émotions [3801.113], by Féré; Fear [3767.128], by Mosso.

LECTURE IV.

The more important practical aspects of the problems of the sub-conscious processes are well given in a small book by Waldstein entitled The Sub-conscious Self [7608.121], and in Jastrow's Fact and Fable in Psychology [3604.24]. The following books may also be consulted: F. W. H. Myers's Human Personality and its Survival of Bodily Death [7603.107]: Royce's Studies of Good and Evil [3587.144], and his Outlines of Psychology [3606.171].

LECTURE V.

The subject of this lecture is mainly covered by the books already referred to, taken in connection with the various standard text-books on psychology which discuss the so-called James-Large theory of the emotions. The most important of these are Professor James's Principles of Psychology [3605.190], and the text-books of psychology by Titchener [3606.145] and by Stout [3604.125]. For the relation of the mind to the body, consult Dr. Morton Prince's Nature of Mind and Human Automatism [5600b.52], and Strong's Why the Mind has a Body [3605.196].

LECTURE VI.

The question of adaptation is admirably treated from a biological standpoint in Morgan's Regeneration [5825.45] and in Loeb's Comparative Physiology of the Brain [5884.126]. For other aspects of the subject see an address by James J. Putnam on The Value of the Physiological Principle in the Study of Neurology, published in the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal for December, 1904 [*5746.1.151], and the various papers there referred to.

LECTURES VII AND VIII.

See Dubois's Psychic Treatment of Nervous Disorders (English translation), and an address by James J. Putnam, entitled A Consideration of Mental Therapeutics as employed by Special Students of the Subject, and published in the Boston Medical and Surgical Journal, June, 1904 [*5746.1.150]; also H. J. Hall's Systematic Use of Work as a Remedy in Neurasthenia and Allied Conditions, Boston Medical and Surgical Journal for January, 1905 [*5746.1.152]; Fat and Blood [3767.74], by S. Weir Mitchell; Suggestive Therapeutics [5801.85], by Bernheim; Studien über Hysterie, [7804.25], by Breuer and Freud; and other publications by Freud; Power through Repose [3586.95], by Annie Payson Call, and From Epicurus to Christ [3446.134], by W. DeW. Hyde.

EDWARD BROWNE HUNT.

Edward Browne Hunt, Chief of the Catalogue Department in the Boston Public Library, died February the Ninth, 1906.

Mr. Hunt entered the library service June 1, 1883, as an assistant in the Catalogue Department. By successive promotions he served in important positions in the Department, finally becoming its Chief on February 1, 1900. His entire service covered 22 years 8 months and 9 days.

His natural qualifications for the important work entrusted to him, his literary attainments, and his exact and scholarly methods, developed through years of experience, made him one of the most valuable members of our staff.

Mr. Hunt was born in Sudbury, Massachusetts, on February 19, 1855. After passing through the public schools of that town he entered the Boston Latin School, and later Harvard College, graduating thence in the Class of 1878, with the degree of A.B., and honors in the classics.

On account of trouble with his eyes, he lost his annual examinations in his sophomore year, and, in consequence, was forced to pass them all during his junior year. This fact prevented his being chosen for Phi Beta Kappa. During the last two years of his course his rank was in the first third of the class.

After graduating, from 1878 to 1881, he was an instructor in the classics, mathematics and English at a private school in Newburyport, Massachusetts. Later he became tutor to the son of Hon. R. J. C. Walker, of Williamsport, Pennsylvania, and afterward served Mr. Walker as his private secretary in Washington.

He married, 1899, Miss Alice Browne, of Dedham, who survives him.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference, or student's certificate secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card Holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetention. No exemption is granted. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked.

Dogs and Smoking are not allowed in the building.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference, or student's certificate secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card Holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetention. No exemption is granted. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked.

Dogs and Smoking are not allowed in the building.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

FREE PUBLIC LECTURES IN THE CITY OF BOSTON

IN THE

LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Opened to the Public in 1839.)

PROGRAM FOR 1906–1907.

THE TRUSTEE of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-eighth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is FREE (but only under certain conditions), as follows:

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL, — 491 Boylston Street.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN, under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN, under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

V. PUBLIC LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

☞METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

☞Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

☞Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

THE FIRST COURSE will be eight lectures by PERCIVAL LOWELL, Non-resident Professor of Astronomy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Director of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Arizona, and Medallist (Mars) of the French Astronomic Society, on Mars as the Abode of Life. 1. 1. II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 1, 1906. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

☞A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

FREE LECTURES maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science, mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History, will be given during the season as follows:

1. Field Lessons in Botany. By MR. HOLLIS WEBSTER.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy. By MR. ALBERT P. MORSE.

5. The Authority Concept in Christianity. By PROF. W. W. FENN. January 21 and January 28.

6. The Absoluteness of Christianity and the History of Religion. By PROF. E. C. MOORE, D.D. February 4 and February 11.

☞All of these lectures will be given in King's Chapel, on Mondays at 3 P.M. Tickets may be secured, free of charge, at the Door, at the Harvard Divinity School, or by applying by mail to the Curator of the Lowell Institute and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference, or student's certificate secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card Holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetention. No exemption is granted. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked.

Dogs and Smoking are not allowed in the building.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

IN THE

LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Opened to the Public in 1839.)

PROGRAM FOR 1906–1907.

THE TRUSTEE of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-eighth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is FREE (but only under certain conditions), as follows:

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL, — 491 Boylston Street.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN, under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN, under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

V. PUBLIC LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

☞METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

☞Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

☞Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

THE FIRST COURSE will be eight lectures by PERCIVAL LOWELL, Non-resident Professor of Astronomy at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Director of the Lowell Observatory, Flagstaff, Arizona, and Medallist (Mars) of the French Astronomic Society, on Mars as the Abode of Life. 1. 1. II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 1, 1906. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

☞A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

FREE LECTURES maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science, mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History, will be given during the season as follows:

1. Field Lessons in Botany. By MR. HOLLIS WEBSTER.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy. By MR. ALBERT P. MORSE.
3. Field Lessons in Geology. By PROF. GEORGE H. BARTON.
4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany. By MR. HOLLIS WEBSTER.

THE PUBLIC LIBRARY OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

RULES AND REGULATIONS.

The following lines contain a brief summary of the rules governing the use of the Library, the full text of which in pamphlet form may be had free. Every user of the Library is expected to be familiar with them.

The Library is free to all at seasonable hours.

Citizens, students, temporary sojourners, officers and men of the Army and Navy, and certain other persons may become card holders. Special privileges are granted also to teachers and clergymen, and loans are made upon deposit.

Application made in writing, with reference, or student's certificate secures a Library Card entitling the holder to draw books. Card Holders must notify Registration Clerk of change of address. Cards are non-transferable and revocable, and registration may be cancelled. Lost cards entail penalty; responsibility continues. Cards must be presented and stamped regularly with each book drawn or returned.

Cards entitle the holder to two books for seven or fourteen days without renewal. Books are not transferable. There are limitations governing the issue of Seven-day books.

There are restrictions upon the lending for Home Use of certain books.

Any person may use books within the Library upon signing the proper form of application, promising to return them before leaving the room.

Fines of two cents a day and twenty-five cents per two weeks extra, for four weeks, and the full cost of replacing books, with loss of privileges until paid, are the penalty for overdetention. No exemption is granted. Further detention is punishable by law.

Books must be used with care and all damage made good. Violations of this rule are punishable by fine and imprisonment.

Books must be returned when called for and are to be taken from the shelves only by employees.

Conversation and other abuses are forbidden under penalty of expulsion. Damage to catalogues is punishable. Attendants must enforce the rules but may be reported for incivility.

The Central Library is open daily except holidays, from 9 A.M. till 10 P.M., Sundays, from 2 till 10 P.M., except that the summer closing hour is 9 P.M. both on week days and Sundays. The Branches are open at the hours posted therein.

HOUSE RULES.

A Coat Room is provided where garments and packages may be checked.

Dogs and Smoking are not allowed in the building.

Employees are not, except in emergency, allowed to receive visitors during working hours.

If articles are lost or found in the Library Building the fact should be reported immediately to the Officer in charge of the Issue Department.

A List of Books
For Teachers and Students of
THE KINDERGARTEN.

The following titles, most of which are kept in the Children's Reference Room, at the Central Library, are among those recommended to students by training school teachers in this city. The list does not include all books so recommended but merely a selection of the most useful. The subjects of Art and Science are purposely omitted.

Books reserved for Hall use are designated "Juv. Ref." Note is made also of circulating copies of such books. Where other shelf-numbers are given the books may be applied for in the Delivery Room, and the Bates Hall catalogue should be consulted for other editions.

IN THE

LOWELL INSTITUTE.

(Founded in 1836 by John Lowell, Jr., and Opened to the Public in 1839.)

PROGRAM FOR 1906–1907.

THE TRUSTEE of the Lowell Institute under the will of John Lowell, Jr., maintains annually in the City of Boston various Courses of Free Public Lectures. For the present — the sixty-eighth — season, five distinct Series are provided, to all of which Admission is FREE (but only under certain conditions), as follows:

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL, — 491 Boylston Street.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN, under the Auspices of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE, — mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History.

IV. EVENING COURSES FOR WORKINGMEN, under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute.

V. PUBLIC LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty.

Further information in regard to the several Series is given below.

A. LAWRENCE LOWELL, Trustee.

I. PUBLIC LECTURES IN HUNTINGTON HALL.

LOWELL INSTITUTE LECTURES open to the public will be given this year, as in recent years, in Huntington Hall, Rogers Building, 491 Boylston Street, Boston. The several Courses will be announced in advance, with full particulars, in the Monthly Bulletin of the Boston Public Library, and in the advertising columns of the Boston Evening Transcript. They are also briefly described on the second and third pages following.

Admission to all Lectures of the Lowell Institute is Free, but only by ticket and under certain conditions. The number of tickets for this Series is limited only by the capacity of the Hall.

☞METHOD OF TICKET DISTRIBUTION.

Tickets are distributed to the public, free of charge, as follows:

Admission tickets to the first Lecture of each Course will be mailed, one to each applicant, in the order of application, and until the supply is exhausted, to all persons applying by letter more than two days before the beginning of any Course, to the CURATOR OF THE LOWELL INSTITUTE, 491 BOYLSTON STREET, BOSTON, and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.

☞Persons desiring to secure tickets for more than one Course must send a SEPARATE STAMPED, ADDRESSED ENVELOPE FOR EACH TICKET AND EACH COURSE. All such envelopes will be filled or placed on file, but, in general, tickets for any Course will not be mailed to applicants until a few days before that Course begins. When tickets are much in demand, ONLY ONE TICKET WILL BE SENT TO ANY ONE APPLICANT.

On and after the day on which a Course begins, any tickets left over for that Course may be obtained at the Office of the Lowell

Institute, 491 Boylston Street, between the hours of 10 A.M., and 4 P.M.; or by sending to the Curator, with a specific request for such left-over tickets, a stamped, addressed envelope; but no tickets will be given out at the Office of the Lowell Institute for any Course before the day on which that Course begins.

All persons attending the first Lecture of any Course may, just before entering the Hall, EXCHANGE their Admission tickets to the first Lecture for TICKETS GOOD FOR THE ENTIRE COURSE AND FOR RESERVED SEATS.

In order to make the distribution fair, and to avoid a rush for the best seats, all reserved-seat tickets are placed beforehand in envelopes, some containing one ticket good for one reserved seat; some containing two or more tickets good for adjoining seats. The envelopes are then shuffled, and at the first Lecture of any Course all who desire to do so may, as stated above, EXCHANGE their first-lecture Admission tickets, at tables in the vestibules, for envelopes drawn by lot, containing COURSE tickets good for RESERVED SEATS.

☞Persons wishing to sit together may, by surrendering together their first-lecture Admission tickets, obtain envelopes containing Course tickets for adjoining seats.

A limited number of applicants having NO TICKETS OF ANY KIND may, as heretofore, obtain admission to the Hall (and generally good seats) by waiting in line in the vestibule, at the foot of the stairs.

Persons obtaining tickets which they afterwards find they cannot use are requested to return them promptly to the Curator or to the Office, for the benefit of other applicants.

A History of the Lowell Institute, by Harriette Knight Smith, giving a complete list of the Lecturers in previous years, the subjects of their lectures, etc., was published in 1898.

LECTURES IN THE THIRD COURSE by BARRETT WENDELL, Professor of English in Harvard University, on Contemporary France will be given on Dec. 3, 6 and 10, and also on the afternoons of Dec. 1, 5, 8, 12 and 15 at 3.30 o'clock.

LECTURES IN THE FOURTH COURSE by WILLIAM JAMES, Professor of Philosophy in Harvard University, on The Movement called "Pragmatism" in Recent Philosophy will be given on Dec. 1, 5 and 8.

LECTURES IN THE FIFTH COURSE by ALFRED C. HADDON, Sc.D., F.R.S., University Lecturer in Ethnology, Cambridge, England, on The Melánesians: Racial Problems, Distribution of Culture, Social and Religious Evolution will be given on Dec. 4, 7, 11 and 14.

THE SIXTH COURSE will be two lectures by WILLIAM H. FURNESS, 3D, M.D., F.R.G.S., Fellow of the Anthropological Institute of Great Britain and Ireland, etc., on The Kayan and Kenyah Tribes of Borneo, and the Natives of Uap in the Caroline Islands. On Thursday, December 13, and Monday, December 17, at 8 P.M.

THE SEVENTH COURSE will be eight lectures by PROFESSOR GEORGE E. WOODBERRY, on Poetic Energy. On Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning January 8, 1907.

THE EIGHTH COURSE will be eight lectures by COLONEL SIR COLIN SCOTT MONCRIEFF, LL.D., Knight Commander of the Star of India, etc., on The English in India and Egypt. On Mondays and Thursdays, at 8 P.M., beginning February 4.

THE NINTH COURSE will be eight lectures by FRANK M. CHAPMAN, Curator of Ornithology, American Museum of Natural History, New York City, on The Distribution of North American Birds. On Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning February 5.

THE TENTH COURSE will be six lectures by CHARLES SEDGWICK MINOT, D.Sc., LL.D., etc., James Stillman Professor of Comparative Anatomy in the Harvard Medical School, on The Problem of Age, Growth and Death. On Mondays and Thursdays, at 8 P.M., beginning March 4.

THE ELEVENTH COURSE will be eight lectures by RUSSELL H. CHITTENDEN, LL.D., Professor of Physiological Chemistry and Director of the Sheffield Scientific School of Yale University, on The Nutrition of Man. On Tuesdays and Fridays, at 8 P.M., beginning March 5.

THE TWELFTH COURSE will be eight lectures by ALBERT BUSHNELL HART, LL.D., Professor of History in Harvard University, on The Real South. On Mondays and Thursdays, at 8 P.M., beginning March 25.

II. EVENING SCHOOL FOR INDUSTRIAL FOREMEN.

The Trustee of the Lowell Institute has established in the Institute of Technology a Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, comprising at present two Courses, one Mechanical, the other Electrical, each extending over two years.

These are intended to bring the systematic study of applied science within the reach of young men who are following industrial pursuits and desire to fit themselves for higher positions, but are unable to attend day courses of instruction.

The work of the school includes recitations, lectures, drawing-room practice, and laboratory exercises, and is given by members of the Faculty of the Institute of Technology. To those who satisfactorily complete the required Courses of the two years, and pass the examinations, certificates are given.

The school is open only to those who are ambitious and willing to study.

The present school year begins October 1, 1906. Attendance from 7.30 to 9.30 for three or four evenings a week is required, in addition to outside study. The entrance examinations are, in a measure, of a competitive nature, and considerable weight is attached to the applicant's occupation and practical experience.

☞A circular giving more detailed information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Director, Lowell Institute Free Evening School for Industrial Foremen, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, Boston.

III. TEACHERS' SCHOOL OF SCIENCE.

FREE LECTURES maintained by the Lowell Institute in the Teachers' School of Science, mainly under the Auspices of the Boston Society of Natural History, will be given during the season as follows:

1. Field Lessons in Botany. By MR. HOLLIS WEBSTER.
2. Field Lessons in Zoölogy. By MR. ALBERT P. MORSE.
3. Field Lessons in Geology. By PROF. GEORGE H. BARTON.
4. Laboratory Lessons in Botany. By MR. HOLLIS WEBSTER.
5. Laboratory Lessons in Zoölogy. By MR. ALBERT P. MORSE.
6. Laboratory Lessons in Geology. By PROF. GEORGE H. BARTON.
7. Lectures and Laboratory Exercises in Alternating Currents. Under the direction of PROF. H. E. CLIFFORD.

☞A circular giving further information may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Curator of the Teachers' School of Science, Boston Society of Natural History.

IV. EVENING LECTURES FOR WORKINGMEN.

FREE INSTRUCTION, especially arranged for Workingmen, will be maintained by the Lowell Institute during the winter under the Auspices of the Wells Memorial Institute, as follows:

1. On Practical Electricity. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By PROF. WILLIAM L. PUFFER.
2. On Mechanical Drawing. Twenty lectures for Beginners. By MR. HARRISON W. HAYWARD.
3. On Machine Drawing. Twenty lectures for Advanced Students. By MR. HARRISON W. HAYWARD.
4. On Practical Mechanics. Twenty lectures. By MR. HARRISON W. HAYWARD.
5. On Steam and Steam Engines. Twenty lectures for Beginners and for Advanced Students. By MR. THOMAS HAWLEY.
6. On Household Science, Cookery, etc. Fifteen lectures. By MISS ANNA BARROWS.

☞Further particulars, with instructions how to obtain admission, may be obtained by sending a stamped, addressed envelope to the Secretary, Lowell Free Courses, Wells Memorial Institute, 985 Washington Street, Boston.

V. LECTURES IN KING'S CHAPEL ON CURRENT PROBLEMS IN THEOLOGY.

FREE LECTURES maintained by the Lowell Institute, under the Auspices of the Harvard Divinity School and by members of its Faculty, will be given as follows:

3. The Present State of Old Testament Criticism. By PROF. C. H. TOY, LL.D. December 10 and December 17.
4. The Absoluteness of Christianity and the History of Religion. By PROF. E. C. MOORE, D.D. January 7 and January 14, 1907.
5. The Authority Concept in Christianity. By PROF. W. W. FENN. January 21 and January 28.
6. The Historical Criticism of the Gospels. By PROF. J. H. ROPES, D.D. February 4 and February 11.

☞All of these lectures will be given in King's Chapel, on Mondays at 3 P.M. Tickets may be secured, free of charge, at the Door, at the Harvard Divinity School, or by applying by mail to the Curator of the Lowell Institute and enclosing a stamped, addressed envelope.
